A One Act One Performer play by

Michael Fosberg

Days of Dialogue: A Southern City Speaks aims to engage the city of Knoxville in the work of having difficult conversations—true dialogue. Following the January 21st event, participants will have opportunities for on-going dialogue and support one another to further this work in their own communities.

ALL are welcome to join in this restorative work.

Concluding Event April 30, 2023

A Seminary FOR the City presentation by

The Episcopal Church of the Ascension
